6  3  2

With a commanding street presence this 1910 Bluestone Villa is an exciting opportunity for an astute buyer to secure a grand home in the prestigious city-fringe suburb of Mile End.

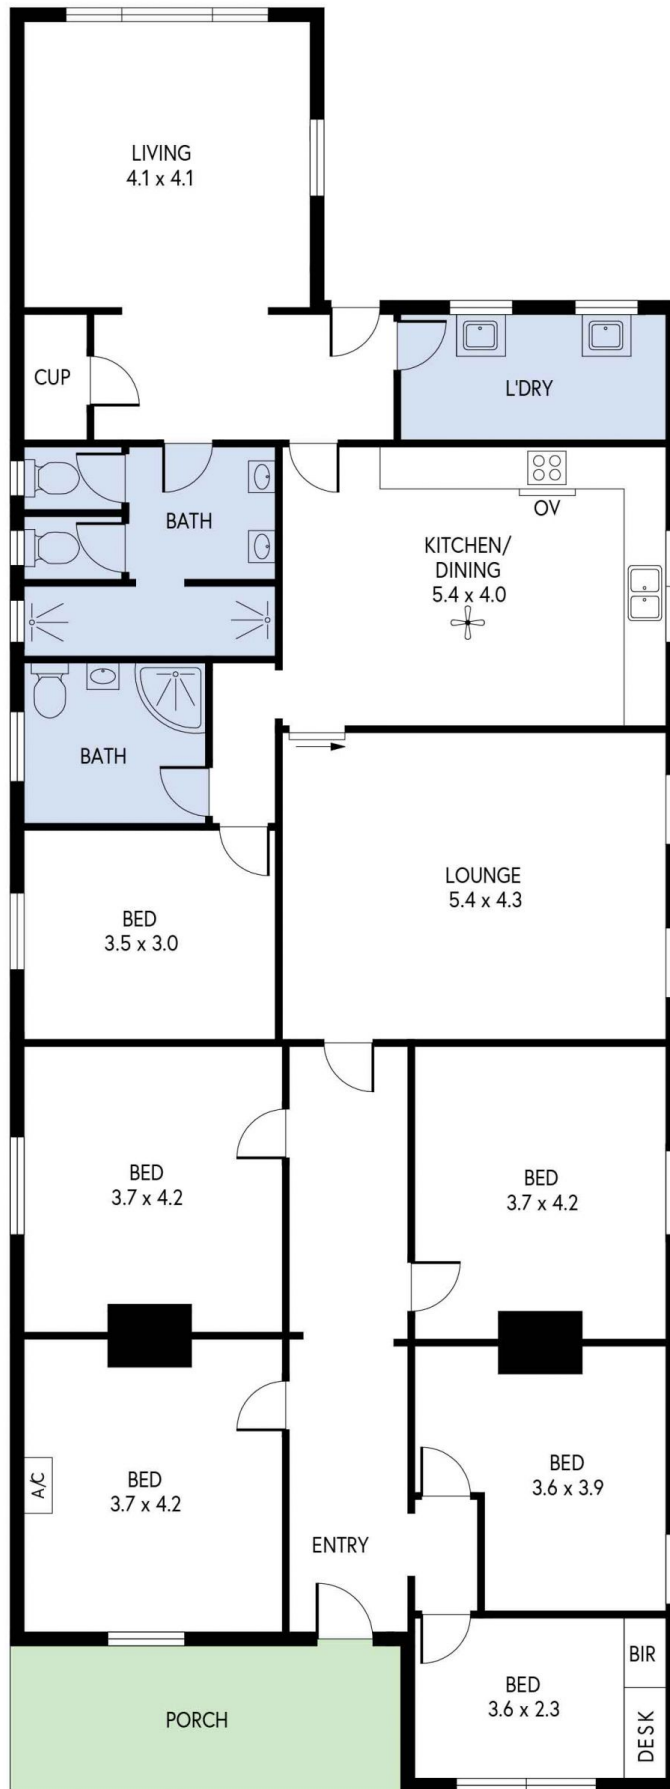

Magnificently set on 660 square metres (approx.) of land with North South orientation, 7 Hughes Street is ready for its new owner to roll up their sleeves and revive the character and charm from a bygone era.

The original home boasts timber floorboards and ornate fireplaces with up to six bedrooms (four generous sized bedrooms and two single rooms or offices). The expansive living room is central to the home and leads through to the enormous eat-in kitchen. A second living room is positioned at the rear of the home, as is the large laundry. Two to three bathrooms service the home.
