2/92A Osmond Terrace Norwood SA

Now under construction is a very rare opportunity on Norwood's most recognised boulevard.

Designed by Atelier Bond Architects and to be crafted by Tempo Constructions, this semi-detached residence of epic proportions is unique in scale, quality and of course position.

At the premium end of the market, you have every right to expect commodious accommodation providing a balance of formal and informal living spaces of grand proportions.

However, should your requirements extend to secure multiple car garaging with extensive storage, your search
