Nestled at 9 View Street, Unley Park, this distinguished property presents a classic red brick and bluestone bungalow on an impressive scale. Beyond the heritage charm, spanning three titles this residence seamlessly integrates timeless architectural elements with contemporary luxury, complemented by an extensive outdoor space that commands attention from every perspective.

The home has been entirely rewired, re-plumbed, reroofed, and reinsulated - which re-enforces the owner's commitment to quality. Additionally, the double-glazed windows provide acoustic and thermal benefits not typically seen in character homes. Within the property, one can observe the influence of Federation origins, characterised
