Awarded Australian House of the Year in 1930 and featured in the real estate bible "House Styles in Adelaide-A Pictorial History," this property is considered an architecturally designed circa 1929 Spanish classic. It features a blend of highly decorative and ornate formal rooms, spacious family living, a dedicated kids wing with a pool, an entertaining pavilion, and a massive grass playing field at the rear.

Upon entering, the hallway, formal sitting, and formal dining areas immediately impress with intricate parquet floors, magnificent fireplaces and surrounds, vaulted ceilings featuring dramatic Red Pine beams, hand-carved wooden cornices, Manchurian Oak wood paneling, extensive rare
