Rather than rest on the laurels of its glorious Williams Burton Leopardi rear extension, this C1890 symmetrical villa has evolved once more thanks to Melbourne-based design studio Nexus?

The result is a dual-level home that is intoxicatingly charming from the start and more transportive with every step toward its bold open-plan crescendo on a far-reaching parcel that settles by its pool and pepper tree.

Perched ever so subtly above street level, this sandstone-fronted beauty builds that perfect dash of suspense beyond its inch-perfect Virginia Kennett-designed gardens, just steps from the ever-revered Pembroke
