2  1

Beyond its storybook picket fence, in one of North Adelaide's prettiest streets, this fully renovated Victorian single fronted cottage reveals a seamless fusion of heritage charm and cutting-edge design, meticulously transformed by Enoki.

Inside, every detail has been curated for impact. Blue gum timber flooring and a neutral palate create a sense of calm. The inviting main bedroom with striking two-way bathroom, features exquisite marble, Japanese Mosaics, ultra stylish bath. The second bedroom or living room holds special provenance, one wall featuring original artwork by celebrated Australian artist Russell Drysdale, a close friend of earlier custodians of the home, adding a totally unique
