Occupying the prized south eastern corner position within Parkline, Apartment 807 delivers a level of openness, outlook and spatial quality rarely found within contemporary apartment living.

With sweeping views toward the Adelaide Hills and across the established grounds of Prince Alfred College, the residence benefits from a landscape that feels expansive, protected and deeply connected to Adelaide's prestigious eastern surrounds.

The apartment offers approximately 134sqm of living accommodation, a scale that immediately distinguishes it from conventional two-bedroom offerings. Rather than
